

MeritBiz Speaking at Insight Info's 2011 Advanced Administrative Professionals Forum

Today's business world demands innovative practices to ensure one remains ahead of the competition. At Insight Info's Advanced Administrative Professionals Forum held on August 9th and 10th in Toronto, executives and administrative professionals in pursuit of career growth and fulfillment can gain a wealth of information.

Experts from a wide range of industries will be covering pertinent topics related to technology, negotiation, risk management and business strategy just to name a few. On the agenda is Tristan Lockie, Managing Director of MeritBiz who will participate as a guest speaker discussing cutting-edge approaches to corporate travel management.

For more information, please visit <http://www.insightinfo.com/executiveassistants> and mention MeritBiz to receive 10% off the registration fee.

About Insight Information

Founded in 1979, Insight Information is Canada's premiere conference provider. Conferences attract executives and professionals in North America by focusing on business and legal information in areas including: Corporate Finance, Health Care, Human Resources, Taxation, Oil and Gas, Mining, Energy, Construction, Aboriginal Issues, Aviation, Government and more. Its strong presence in the market has attracted more than 7,000 key decision makers in 2010.